Notice of Data Breach

Dear <<Full Name>>,

OBI Seafoods, LLC ("OBI") is writing to inform you of a recent security incident that involved personal information related to certain current and former workers and vendors of OBI and Ocean Beauty Seafoods, LLC ("OBS").

While we are unaware of any reports of fraud or identity theft as a result of this incident, we encourage you to read this notice carefully as it contains information regarding the incident and steps you can take to safeguard your personal information.

What Happened?

On or around August 16, 2024, OBI became aware of a security incident impacting a portion of its environment. Upon detection, OBI immediately took steps to secure its systems and engaged external cybersecurity specialists to assist with the investigation. OBI also notified federal law enforcement of the incident. Through the investigation, OBI determined that information related to current and former workers and vendors of OBI or OBS may be involved.

What Information Was Involved?

OBI maintains information relating to both OBI and OBS workers and vendors. Although the information involved varies depending on each individual and their relationship with OBI or OBS, after reviewing our records, we have determined the following information is involved: your name and <<Breached Elements>>.

For current and former workers, it is possible that OBI maintained data regarding your dependents and beneficiaries if that information was provided to OBI or OBS. To confirm whether their information may be involved, we encourage you to call our call center at 855-659-0091, Monday through Friday from 6:00am through 6:00pm Pacific Time. Additionally, please be aware that your dependents and beneficiaries may receive a letter in the mail. This letter is legitimate and relates to the same incident we are notifying you about.

What Are We Doing?

The confidentiality, privacy, and security of information maintained by Ocean Beauty remains our top priority. Upon discovery, we moved quickly and diligently to investigate the incident, ensure the security of our systems, and identify whose information may be involved.

OBI is offering complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services to individuals whose Social Security Number, Taxpayer ID, Driver's License, or State Identification Number may be involved in this incident.

We strongly encourage you to review the steps outlined in this letter to protect your information and sign up for the services offered. Cybersecurity is an ongoing concern for everyone, as companies worldwide face cybersecurity threats. Individuals can better protect themselves by following the steps below.

What Can You Do?

OBI encourages you to consider the following recommendations to protect your personal information:

1. Enroll in Complimentary Credit Monitoring and Identity Protection Services. We have arranged for Experian to provide individuals whose Social Security Number, Taxpayer ID, Driver's License, or State Identification Number may have been impacted by this incident with access to Experian IdentityWorksSM for 24 months. This service provides access to the following:
 - Credit Monitoring: This service actively monitors Experian, Equifax and Transunion files for indicators of fraud.
 - Identity Restoration: This service provides Identity Restoration specialists available to help you address credit and non-credit related fraud.
 - Identity Theft Insurance: Identity theft insurance will reimburse you for expenses associated with restoring your identity should you become a victim of identity theft. If your identity is compromise, the policy provides coverage for up to $1,000,000.

Enrollment Instructions: Using your unique activation code, <<Activation Code>>, you may enroll in the service in two ways:

- Online: Visit www.experianidworks.com/3bcredit and follow the instructions to enroll. Please note that you will be asked to create an account.
- By Phone: Contact Experian's customer care team at 1-877-288-8057.

Ensure that you enroll by June 30, 2025. The provided code will not work after this date. Be prepared to provide engagement number B142093 as proof of eligibility for the Identity Restoration services by Experian.

2. Review Your Accounts for Suspicious Activity. We encourage you to remain vigilant by regularly reviewing your accounts and monitoring credit reports for suspicious activity.
3. Order A Credit Report. If you are a U.S. resident, you are entitled under U.S. law to one free credit report annually from each of the three nationwide consumer reporting agencies. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228. If you discover information on your credit report arising from a fraudulent transaction, you should request that the credit reporting agency delete that information from your credit report file. Contact information for the nationwide credit reporting agencies is provided in the next section.
4. Contact the Federal Trade Commission, Law Enforcement, and Credit Bureaus. You may contact the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), your state's Attorney General's office, or law enforcement, to report incidents of identity theft or to learn about steps you can take to protect yourself from identity theft. To learn more, you can go to the FTC's websites at www.identitytheft.gov and www.ftc.gov/idtheft; call the FTC at (877) IDTHEFT (438-4338); or write to: FTC Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. You may contact the nationwide reporting agencies at:

Equifax	Experian	TransUnion
P.O. Box 740241 Atlanta, Georgia, 30374	P.O. Box 9701 Allen, TX 75013	P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19022
www.equifax.com 1-800-525-6285	www.experian.com 1-888-397-3742	www.transunion.com 1-800-916-8800

5. Additional Rights Under the FCRA. You have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in your credit file has been used against you, the right to know what is in your credit file, the right to ask for your credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to your file is limited; you must give your consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; you may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report; and you may seek damages from violators. You may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here.

Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage you to review your rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by: (i) visiting https://files.consumerfinance.gov/f/documents/bcfp_consumer-rights-summary_2018-09.pdf; or (ii) by writing to Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

6. Request Fraud Alerts and Security Freezes. You may obtain additional information from the FTC and the credit reporting agencies about fraud alerts and security freezes. You can add a fraud alert to your credit report file to help protect your credit information. A fraud alert can make it more difficult for someone to get credit in your name because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, but it also may delay your ability to obtain credit. You may place a fraud alert in your file by calling just one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies listed above. As soon as that agency processes your fraud alert, it will notify the other two agencies, which then must also place fraud alerts in your file.

To place a fraud alert, call any one of the three major credit bureaus at the numbers listed below. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, they will notify the others.

Equifax Fraud Alert	Experian Fraud Alert	TransUnion Fraud Alert
P.O. Box 105069 Atlanta, GA 30348 https://www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services/credit-fraud-alerts/ (800) – 525-6285	P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 https://www.experian.com/fraud/center.html (888) 397-3742	P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19016 https://www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts (888)-909-8872

In addition, you can contact the nationwide credit reporting agencies at the following numbers to place a security freeze at no cost to you:

Equifax Security Freeze	Experian Security Freeze	TransUnion Security Freeze
P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348 https://www.equifax.com/personal/credit-report-services/credit-freeze/ 1-888-298-0045	P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 http://experian.com/freeze 1-888-397-3742	P.O. Box 160 Woodlyn, PA 19094 http://www.transunion.com/credit-freeze 1-888-916-8800

Placing a security freeze prohibits the agency from releasing any information about your credit report without your written authorization. Security freezes must be placed separately at each of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. When requesting a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information:

- Your full name, with middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, etc.
- Social Security number
- Date of birth
- Current address and all addresses for the past two years
- Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill
- Legible copy of a government-issued identification card, such as a state driver's license, state identification card, or military identification.

After receiving your request, each agency will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN or password that you will need to lift or remove the freeze. You should keep the PIN or password in a safe place.

If your personal information has been used to file a false tax return, to open an account or to attempt to open an account in your name or to commit fraud or other crimes against you, you may file a police report in the City in which you currently reside.

If you do place a security freeze prior to enrolling in the credit monitoring service as described above, you will need to remove the freeze in order to sign up for the credit monitoring service. After you sign up for the credit monitoring service, you may refreeze your credit file.
